

Oooh..... yeah..... yeah.....

Miserable, was I living the life that I chose?

An unconsciously urge that I couldn't control were the terrible thoughts held deep within my soul dictating everyday how my life would unfold

I thought was I trapped in a world filled with sorrow and pain meant to live a life of shame with only bills to my name cause I had no wealth to claim, at the end of my suffering, doing things that I hated to make a living

So I cried there's no escaping who I am

no escaping what I'd be no escaping

my reality

No escaping the debt I've made no escaping the problems I face

my mind was full of doubt, and I saw no way out but I felt deep in my soul, there's got to be a better route then I held my head high, trying hard not to cry seeking help from the spirit, unseen to the eye then it gave me wisdom and knowing it made me see infinite possibilities it heal my soul, took off the blindfold then showed me the way to a brighter destiny no more will I say there's no escaping who I am

All I ever wanted was to be happy like birds flying by, so peaceful and beautiful, enjoying their lives like the rivers that flow with schools of fish knowing their place, or they wouldn't exist

While watching the rich and famous, enjoy perfect lives

I thought when o when will it be my time and I discovered the time is now cause its all clear to me

And never again out of naivity will I repeat this saying again, there's no escaping who I am

my reality

Cause I found me

oh oh oohI found me

hey I found me

I found me
