

Sophisticated Man - Elishema

Oh, I've had it with you immature guys who think you're running things

I got news for you, cause I look your way don't mean you're running me

I don't like the way you approach me and I ain't your shorty

So don't make a scene raising your voice and waving your hand at me

I don't need no guy who follows tasteless trends but and innovators who's independent

I don't need no guy who always hangs with friends

But enjoys me over and over again

I need someone with class and elegance who stands out over other men so step to me right or you just might not get my full attention

So pull up your pants and act like a man

if that's what you're supposed to be

Cause I ain't having no low life scrub

rollin around with me

treat me like a lady, at least take me to a movie

Be a man

cause I want a sophisticated man

I ain't no girl from the streets kissing every joker that I meet

I'm smart and rare precious a lady

I got high standards to keep

So if you want to get with me you gotta talk and act intelligently have a job not a quick hustle cause I want you behaving professionally i am the type that likes the upscale parties and the lavish jewelry and I won't ask you to buy expensive things but at least act like you can afford me and look like your straight out of a classy magazine being every girls fantasy and dream, but belonging only to me

i want a sophisticated man oh uh, oh uh uh.....

if you gonna wear the pants then wear them well how you expect me to put faith in you

If you can't even dress yourself

i need a man that's strong, that knows how to come home oh uh oh, oh yeah!

cause home is where the heart is you best to believe it

this ain't no fairy tale everything I'm saying is real joke if you play your cards right i'll be your queen and you could be my precious king pull up your pants and act like a man

sophisticated, sophisticated, sophisticated man

I wanna sophisticated, sophisticated, sophisticated man
